Crusade

And we are blessed that we are called by the Father to take up the challenge of creating a Christian community that is able to live out the Gospel message in our relationships with one another. This we strive to do through our various programmes like the retreat programme, patch day, service day, development and social action, the Eucharist, and through the many Eucharistic celebrations that are held each year at the Abbey.

And above all, the great privilege and challenge that we might develop, the most important thing to learn and appeal for is that we might become like the eyes of Christ that we are all His children and that we need to more deeply appreciate His love and His desire to bring us our shortcomings, joys and failures.

And we need to be people who are fully alive, who while living in this world with its own set of values, we are not only prepared to take a stand on the side of the right, when we see any injustices being committed, but we must also be people who are joyful and hearty, as was Christ.

WE CAN ONLY ASK YOU TO GIVE ME TO THINK
WHAT I CAN ONLY ASK YOU TO GIVE ME TO THINK
WHAT I CAN ONLY ASK YOU TO GIVE ME TO THINK
WHAT I CAN ONLY ASK YOU TO GIVE ME TO THINK
WHAT I CAN ONLY ASK YOU TO GIVE ME TO THINK

Matthew 25:31

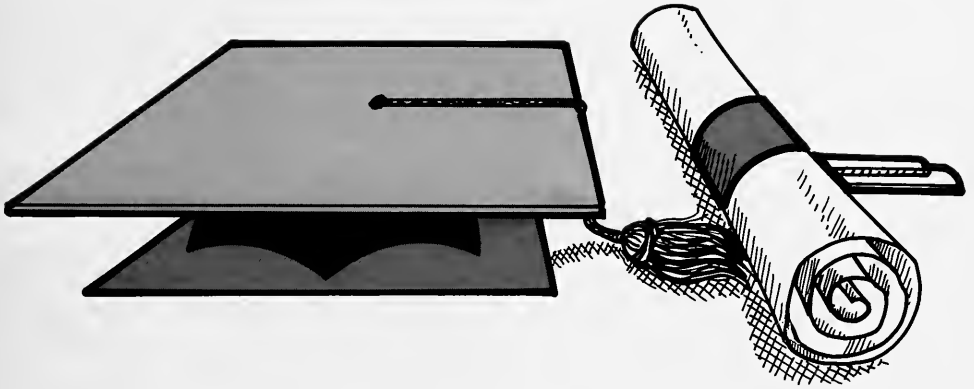

And so, in this passage we receive God's call to be on the way of this community, and that's as simple as that. It's that we are called to the work, the labour, the burden of the Lord, it's to these that we are called to be faithful, to those with whom we love and to those for whom we are called to love. It's that we are called to be faithful to the work of the Lord, to the community of people who remain, we are called to be faithful to the work of the Lord, to the community of people who remain, we are called to be faithful to the work of the Lord, to the community of people who remain.

And so, in this passage we receive God's call to be on the way of this community, and that's as simple as that. It's that we are called to the work, the labour, the burden of the Lord, it's to these that

God bless you all

Fr. Joe Edmunds, OMI
Fr. Tim McQuinn
Fr. Michael, OMI

GRADE 13 SENIORS

ANNEMARIE BERGOUGNOU
Anne Marie left us for a time while she spent several months where she probably lazed on the Côté d'Azur and painted the countryside of France! We're glad Annemarie joined us again for the second semester of Grade 13. Annemarie's intelligence and good humour will take her far.

WILLIAM ALMAS

William is the athletic type, who enjoyed track & field & cross country during his years at CCHigh. In his spare time he likes to cycle and sketch. When there's time left over he ponders over the meaning of life. William fondly remembers the B7 Prom and having Mr. Beretta as a Calculus teacher. Future plans include continuing his education anywhere that will take him!!!! Good Luck!

SANDRA ANDRADE

Sandra is one of those CCH rebels when it comes to uniform and believes it should be changed to red and white. She has enjoyed her five years at CCH and is considering coming back for another five years to be the leader of another walkout. Sandra doesn't know what school she'll be attending but she does know that she wants to become a psychologist.

LUCY ANTUNES

Lucy has found that life has been "tough" at CCH and believes it has been the five longest years of her entire life. Lucy enjoys horseback riding on her farm, tennis, and Mr. Kellett's stories in chemistry class. Her future plans are to take the place of Jill Abbott on Y and R and live happily ever after. Good luck and see you at Western!

CHRIS ARMSTRONG

Chris is the kind of guy who can read massive novels during calculus and still come out on top! Chris' involvement in karate has kept him busy during the time he isn't spending on homework. His talents are many and we're sure that he'll be a success. Good Luck Chris!

PAULA BARREIRA

Paula believes that CCH is the absolute best school in the world, since the uniform is now in order for the males. Her most memorable event was the 1985 Christmas assembly. She has learned at CCH that the spirit continues. Paula doesn't know what her future plans include but Good Luck with whatever you do in life, Paula.

MARY ANN AUNEDI

Mary Ann is quite the shopper! She's also deeply into travelling (adventure, anyone?). She's part of the visible pro-dress code minority, so you can see she likes cloning! Maybe you'll become a genetic engineer, eh? Anyway, good luck at Western, and keep a tight reign on those charge cards!

OSCAR BALAGOT

Oscar was one of those talented people who organized the post prom bash at the P.L.H. When asked what his favourite class was, he said that he could not tell us because it was a toss up between Mr. Garinther's 13 Physics class or Mr. Barretta's 13 Calculus (um... Calculus) class. We all know this because of obvious reasons.) Well, (as Oscar would put it) Good Luck with all future endeavors.

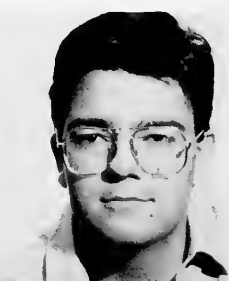

MATT BAN

Bob has made many a fine contribution to CCH in his five years here. Many will remember him for his classic K.R. photos and his trusty Nikon, and who can forget the sight of our favorite photo editor emerging from the darkroom wearing his lab coat? Good Luck in life!

RITA BACCI

Rita has fond memories of The Pinery, Gibbons Beach, and Florida 87. Rita hopes to go to Western next year for Psychology; if not she can always fall back on those mean margaritas she mixes. Good Luck!

FRANK BARATTA

Frank loves music, hockey and watching "the Monkees" on City TV. But did you know he's allergic to ice cream? Frank will be leaving us next year in the hopes of attending Western, but maybe you'll see him when he becomes famous for rewriting Schubert's "unfinished" symphony in B minor.

MICHELLE BARBERI

Michelle loves men over 21, rocky road ice cream, and hates the uniform. She loves CCH for its spirit and warmth (don't we all?). She hopes to finish university and make lots of money by taking over hotels and companies. Good luck next year Michelle, and see you at U. of T.

JIM BARR

We all know and admire little Jimmy Dale for his better known characteristics like his untucked white shirts, Adolph Hitler hair cut, and fetish for exacto knives. He has a tendency to party until he can't feel his entire body. For this reason we feel that Jim will enjoy engineering at university, or at least the social activities that go with it.

KENNETH BLAIR

Kenneth is the strong and silent type. Very debonaire. But inside lies a raging inferno of passion awaiting to see Glass Tiger. It's been a slice Ken! (But I don't know what of?)

JUSTIN BARTLEY

Justin is a music man, and he really swings a mean trombone. His future plans are to "confuse people". Right on! Justin leaves us with this well thought out philosophy of life: "Sometimes, you just have to say what the heck". (Cue, they should make that into a movie!) Good luck in everything you do, J.B.

ROSS BARTLEY

We won't even mention Ross' brother because we know he seldom gets individual recognition. Ross has been a big part of the band during his CCHigh years, including his executive position on the band council. Ross is a sweet and quiet guy ... most of the time. He's known for his barbaric tendencies; however, these are usually successfully repressed!

DUSTIN BELLYOU

Dustin has spent the past 5 years playing all types of sports; partying at the Bavarian; cruising in his car; and tanning by the pool. He must have done some studying amongst all that because he plans to (hopefully) enter the challenging field of engineering at any university that will accept him. His final words "It's been a great 5 years, but never eat the beefaroni." Good luck, Dustin!

KIM BENNETT

Kim has fond memories of the '82 power failure (dig those surprise holidays!), and has strong feelings about the Crusader identity. She loves CCHigh, because "it was here that I endured it all!" That says a mouthful for any true Crusader. Keep on fighting. We wish you luck in whatever you do!

ANTHEA BENJAMIN

Anthea is known for her purple NEON jacket, her sarcastic humor and her brother Dave, who she prefers not to speak of. Her hobbies include beating up snotty little grade tens, but she gave that up in grade 9. Anthea is really a lot of fun and CCH loves her more than Coca-Cola Classic.

CONNIE BEUKEBOOM

Connie is the tall, shy blonde with "the girl next door look." But get Boomer on the track and look out! Connie has been CCHigh's pride and joy on the track, Cross Country running, and ski teams. Connie's three years in the orchestra were also very much appreciated. Best of luck Connie.

BRAD BLACK

Brad has to be the guy with the highest marks while doing the least amount of homework. Brad is intelligent, witty and fun to be with (Ask any of his friends). He'll probably be at Western next year, seeing as he's already got a head start. We wish you the best at all your endeavors.

KEN BLAIR

Ken's claim to fame was the introduction of vegetable fusion. Ken was one of the many paid prefects that take a lot of abuse so let's take the opportunity to thank him for his contributions. Good luck in the future Ken.

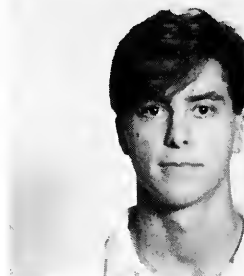

JOHN BOMANS

John "the Rower" loved CCH so much, he just couldn't leave it! Perhaps it was the intense EUCHRE games he played at lunch who knows? All we know is that it's a LONG way from CCH to Thamesford. Good Luck in your future endeavours at university John!!

MATT BOMANS

Matt joined us at CCH in grade 11. Nobody is quite sure but we think he lives in Thamesford. Matt will be remembered for his haircuts and his hats! He has been a real asset to the impressive senior men's lightweight rowing crew. Best of luck in the future, Matt.

TIM BOURDEAU

Tim loves hockey, baseball and waterskiing. His hobbies include playing pool to make a few bucks and fixing his boat. He hopes to attend Kings or Western next year but he loves CCH so much he might come back again. Who knows? Good luck Tim.

MONIQUE BOUTTE

Among the many things Monique has accomplished at Catholic Central she feels one of the greatest was learning how to sign out illegally. Future plans for Monique include attending Western, becoming a wild animal, and Todd. Good Luck in whatever you do.

JOHN BRADBURY

John was often seen wandering aimlessly through the halls embracing his tuba. Of course his caring attitude will always be remembered as he instilled feelings of happiness with his ever-sensitive question, "How's it going?" Any last words? Veni Vidi Vici.

JIM BROCK

Jim is that heartthrob of practically every girl in CCH. His interests include girls, football, hockey, track. He's also one of the few male bodies on our great cheer-leading squad. Jim feels that CCH has helped him to expand his knowledge to the underprivileged undergrads. After Jim's finished at UWO he hopes to come back and teach here. What school spirit!

TERENCE BRENNAN

Terence or Terry is interested in model railroads and baseball. He said that his best memory of CCH has been his graduation and the prom. His future plans are to be an urban designer. His final thoughts are that he had a good time.

NORBERT BROCKMANN

Norbert is all for the limited use of nuclear weapons in case of war. Despite this one major character flaw, Norbert is really a great guy. He lives for COR weekends and is a member of the Joe's Office Junkies.

CARLA BROUWER

Carla is another person involved in theatre arts. She loves acting, miming and working at Storeybook Gardens. She was also involved in the Dramatic Arts Club last year. She hopes to attend York next year to become a dramatic arts teacher just like Mr. Proulx!

MICHELLE BURJAW

Michelle Burjaw has left her mark at CCHigh. She was recruited to England for a year, and was our secretary for a year and did a great job! She's a swell chick but one thing puzzles me: Michelle, do you row for LRC, or is that your boyfriend's jacket?

CHRIS CALLAGHAN

This is the sixth year at CCH for Callaghan. To list a few he was one of the founding members of a radical youth organization bent on freeing enslaved Christmas trees. Chris may go to university next year or he will hitchhike across Europe.

ANDY CARDINAL

Andy loved CCH so much that he couldn't bear to leave! Andy's outspoken and self-righteous behavior made it a joy to have him in class. As goaltender for the senior hockey team for the past years, he'll be missed in the future. We wish Andy the best of luck.

JEFF CAMPBELL

"Shooter" can be seen around CCH with his cervesa cradled against his pectorals. Joe Kool's has made Jeff CCH's resident bartender. Unfortunately he is torn between his caesar's salad and his bloody caesar. Hopefully daddy will be transferred to Margarita Island soon so Jeff can retire by the time he is 25.

JOHN CAMPBELL

John is the toughest prefect at CCH. When people see him in the halls they turn and walk the other way. After all, John does look pretty menacing in his leather jacket. John's future plans are to be a bouncer at the Ceeps.

ISABEL CARLOS

Isabel has spent five glorious years here at CCH. In her spare time, you can either find her at night school, or at Duke Wellington's, the men's store where she works. Next year, Isabel is planning to take social studies at Western, although we know the real reason! Good luck next year.

PAT CARRON

Pat loves all kinds of sports, and orange sherbert with a twist of lemon(?) He has very fond memories from grade 10, when Al J. got his shorts pulled down in the cafeteria, but then I'm sure we all do! (Right, Al?) He is going to Western next year and plans to travel the world. Lots of luck, Pat!

IAN CARSON

Ian was the editor of the OK (Occasional KnightRider) and happily answered the question, "Will there be an issue this term?" with a polite, "Oh, shut up". Ian's brilliant with computers and we are sure that this will bring him success and MONEY (oh boy!). Hackers unite!

FRANK CARUANA

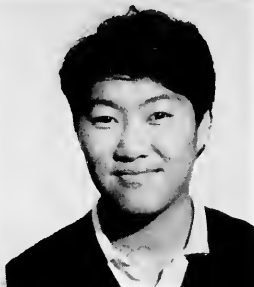

Frank can be seen exceeding the speed limit on the CCH parking lot or on the basketball court. Keep strutting Frank, maybe someday you will get to be a Harlem Globetrotter.

BARB CHWIECKO

This Polish woman has been at CCH for five whole years. We all know she's an outgoing and happy girl...? She's also been a cheerleader for CCH. Barb's future plans are to go on to business at Western or York next year and also checking out all the university men. Good luck in your future Barb!!

CLAUDIA CHUN

Claudia is a sweet, hardworking girl who is never too busy to smile and chat a bit. Thanks for your help and co-operation as part of the yearbook staff. Claudia's determination and hard work has given her success and we wish her continued success in the future.

ANGELA CHRISTIAANS

Ange could usually be HEARD in the halls with her loud cackling laugh. Being one of the illustrious few from the Hunt Club, Ange has managed to make enough money to support everyone and their grandmothers! She will be remembered for her warp with the dress code and the orchestra. Good luck as a teacher.

DAVE CHARLES

Charles is always ready to help the school spirit whether playing sports, spectating or cheerleading and participating in student council activities. He was one of the many 13's that lived at the Weldon Library and was always good for company in the pit. Dave's taste in music was always visible at 'Call the Office'. Good luck in your future endeavors!

DAVID COLAFRANCESCHI

Dave is the man you saw walking in the CCH halls with the assistance of crutches for a while. He was then unable to play his favorite sport, basketball. Dave's best moments at CCH were skipping class to play basketball, and going to Mr. Kellett's chemistry class to see how well his labs would explode. Dave hopes to become a plumber in the future so he can unclog the sinks in Mr. K's classroom. Have a good life, Dave!

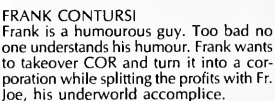

AMY BETH COLLINS

Amy Beth is a real sweet gal ya know. She enjoys cooking them fried chicken for all ya fritters out there. Amy Beth enjoys visiting her friends out on the farm. Amy is an Amazonian goddess and she wants to ride in Al's car for the rest of her happy life. Have fun Amy!

JIM COMEAU

Despite the fact that Jim has learned practically nothing at our fine institute, he has perfected the ability to boggle people's minds with his meaningless riddles. Well, Jim's planning on attending Fanshawe next year to become an accountant, and we hope he has a great time. Good luck and ... later dude!

FRANK CONTURSI

Frank is a humorous guy. Too bad no one understands his humour. Frank wants to takeover COR and turn it into a corporation while splitting the profits with Fr. Joe, his underworld accomplice.

MARIA LUISA CONTURSI

Maria Luisa is the little Italian wonder who is related to everyone. She wants to spend her life bearing offspring and listening to her husband Jay. "Ain't that pretty Maria?". Maria's future aspirations include psychology but will probably publish an advice column called "Dear Maria Luisa."

AARON CONNORS

A wise old bold man once said "Any electric guitar playing rock star who tries hard enough will someday become a waiter."

ROY COOK
Roy has been very busy this year with parties and finding money for the rent. His favorite past-time is surviving and, well . . . obviously he's doing it well! Roy will be seen next year at Fanshawe and he hopes to one day make lots of money (don't we all). Good Luck Roy!

PATRICK COUGHLAN
We all know Pat by his army crewcut and his prefect jacket. And we all know that when Pat tells you to do something, you do it! Really, though, Pat's a fun guy. In future, he plans to be an officer. Good luck!

CHRISTINE CRAMER
Christine Cramer is perfect. There is absolutely no doubt about it. C2 has become a synonym for impeccability. Christine returned this year after spending her summer flirting with all the Pierres, Jacques and Guys in La Belle Province. Her plans include going to university and becoming a successful career woman. Good luck!

ANN MARIE CRUMMER
Ann Marie is another one of those Kavalkade fanatics of 1986. When she's not working she's either partying or hitting the Odeon on $2.50 Tuesdays. Ann Marie hopes to go to Western next year to get into business of some sort, either accounting or office management. Good luck Ann Marie!

JOE CULJAK
Joe is one guy you don't want to meet in a dark alley. Joe is well on his way to a black belt in karate, and at 180 pounds he is no one to be messing with. Good luck Joe.

JOHN CUMMINS
John belongs in the 60's. He was caught in a time warp and his body wound up with us. John lives for things such as Zeppelin, Fr. T's World Politics class, and lunch hours spent in Campbell's Park. Good luck, John, and maybe live in Sydney's house next year.

MIMMA CURCIO
Mimma works at MacDonald's and believes it has been the best experience of her life. Mimma hasn't learned anything yet at CCH other than Mr. Kellett's amazing stories and that the dress code is a definite strain on your eyes. Mimma plans to attend Fanshawe in hopes of overruling Dr. Ruth or becoming her assistant. Good luck to you, Mimma.

DAVE CURTIN
Due to circumstances beyond our control, we were not able to print the story of Dave's undercover life. Besides being a joker, Dave has had much success tooting his horn - french horn that is! Dave would like to teach special education once he has completed university. PS - Do you want to go bowling?

NANCY DAY
Nancy has contributed a lot to C.C.H. with her running talents. She is one of our High School stars on the track & field and cross-country teams. Nancy plans to study computer science in the future. Reach for those stars Nancy and good Luck. We couldn't have made it without you.

BERNADETTE DEGAUST
If you want to find Burnin' Bernie you can either look in the pit or go to Oakville where she'll be chasing those guys. In her future Bernie plans to go to Fanshawe and improve all her skills.

STEPHEN DEJEU

Steve loves wrestlemania. . . Steve is wrestlemania! "Mr. Wonderful" loves playing baseball, stepping on rooks, and calculating instantaneous velocities.(?) He will be attending Western next year and will become very successful in business. After all, who would stand in his way?

RENÉ DERUITER

The "socializer" was known for having a good time wherever he went and whatever he did. If you're feeling down and blue just talk to him and he'll make your life a little bit brighter. Does anyone have any money I can borrow? Good luck next year René!

ROB DICKSON

Rob alias "Billy Bob" Dickson has spent five glorious years here at CCH. When not at school he can be found at work at the Free Press, or on the tennis courts at UW or at the ski slopes. Rob has set his sights on Western for next year and he has had a head start with his Psychology night course. We all know that Rob will succeed in any of his future endeavours. Live long and prosper Billy Bob!

PAUL DIEDERICHSEN

Paul's hulking form, sparkling smile, and cat-like reflexes made him a charming addition to this year's senior football team. He and his evil twin, Jeff Vossen, spend the majority of their time on weekends either playing in the aisles of Toys R Us or spitballing cars for entertainment. Apart from that he claims to lead a pretty dull life.

ROMAN DELACRUZ

(otherwise known as Buddha) Roman is known for organizing Florida trips with young vulnerable girls, and also for exhibiting his cheerleading skills and partying in the station wagon. Roman's future plans are to take over his father's optical store just so he can take off three days a week. Well its been a good five years!

ERIN DELANEY

Erin's most memorable event at CCH was being taped up in the tunnel by Tim Van Dam and his goons. They knew that it was the only way to keep her still. Erin's been very active in CCH's track-in-field team throughout the years and says that she's going to miss CCH. Good luck Erin.

KEITH DEVEREAUX

The man with the big gun is even happier, now that he is controlling the Batcycle. Disco Devs danced down in Jamaica and will continue to boogie until . . . (well, you know!). But besides this incredible dancing talent he was the Treasurer of the Student Council this year. Good luck in all your endeavours Keith even if it includes peddling bagels in Vancouver!

NUNO DIAS

Nuno appears to be that sweet innocent boy-you-take-home-to-mother type of guy but that's only a cover. He's deeply involved in the underworld operation for "Joe for Pope". Maybe that's why they are always in Joe's office. Good luck next year Noodles.

VINCE DILIELLO

The girls will tell you Vince is pretty wild, but I'm sure it's really his perfume. His personalized vocabulary includes: "Sammy the Snake", "Jack the Bear", "You're in There", & "Poof to the Head". Besides leading the Big Shooterettes, Vince was known to spend time with M.L. and plans to be a lawyer.

JACQUELINE DONAHUE

Jac, Digger, Jake the Snake and Jacqueline are all one in the same! Jac lives for Friday nights, Oaks and her beloved cottage in Port Stanley. One day she hopes to attend McGill University where she'll supposedly "study". Good luck at McGill Jac, and remember to "Parté".

GIULIO D'ORTA
Giulio is one of our popular Italians. He is one of the talented musicians at C.C.H. and was the highlight of many entertainment assemblies. Giulio was an important part of the music program. His future aims are to attend university and teacher's college. Who knows? Maybe he'll be back here teaching some day.

JAMES DUNNING
JJ can party, whether it be at the Bend, on his roof, or in Jamaica. JJ has lost his licence half a dozen times, but life to him is a party. That's probably why he will be at Carleton next year.

DAVID ELIAS
Dave's involved in Blue and White and the Chocolate Bar campaign. (I'd say embezzling 2 million dollars from the chocolate bar money is pretty "involved", wouldn't you?) His future plans include either the University of Tuktoyuktuk or Ivan R Sales Beauty School(?) Good luck!

MARIA ERDOSE
Maria, works, works, works. She has two jobs, one at Chi Chi's and at McDonald's. All work & no play is no fun, so when she isn't at work she's skipping classes (especially Mr Garinther's SPH 5A1), enjoying the sun or partying. Next year she plans on going to Western and perhaps pursuing the "prestigious" career as a Math teacher. Good luck in all your endeavors!

MIKE FEENEY
This fun loving guy has no hobbies, no interests and no extracurricular activities that he doesn't get paid for. Aside from theatre he says that everyday is an experience on its own. Mike wants to get a degree in something maybe physics before he starves to death in Grand Bend. Well good luck Mike and we're glad you didn't go to Saunders or Oakridge!

DIL FERNANDO
Dil's hobbies include Social Darwinism and Hamlet's soliloquys. She also enjoys chasing guys in the school who have crutches. Her most memorable moments were Mr. Stranges' homework checks and Mr. Kellett's stories about homing pigeons. Her future plans include becoming a doctor or a grade 13 Religion teacher. Good luck at Western!

PAULA FIGUEIREDO
Paula has been here for a long time (a whole 5 years). Paula's most memorable event was spent at the PROM this year (for obvious reasons). Paula hopes to attend Western next year and major in Biology (what a challenge). One general warning about this person "smallness has no say for powerfulness!" See ya around!

MICHAEL FENERTY
Mike loves to play drums. He also likes ducks(?). He tells us that he lives for the CCH uniform and he feels that colour co-ordination is an extremely important factor in a person's daily life. Maybe that is why his most memorable event at CCH is running through the halls. Good luck next year Mike!

DEBORAH FENLON
Deb is the pretty girl who sits in the front row. Deb works at Patton's Place, and is opposed to Sunday Store Openings. Between D.H., H.W., and P.P. Deb hasn't got time for much else. Best of luck with what the future holds.

MIKE FOTI
One look at this ambitious young man and you can read "aspiring millionaire". Mike enjoys bicycling, swimming, horseback riding, and money. He spends most of his unoccupied time arguing with his parents. Mike hopes to go to university next year and to become a capitalist. Good Luck!

DINO FOTIA
Dino bashfully walks around CCH trying to avoid females. He sometimes plays basketball, occasionally in city championships but never complains about travelling calls. He finally got rid of that furry thing under his nose. Dino will probably become a priest and play for the Harlem Globetrotters.

ADAM FOULON
Adam will long be remembered as saying "This time, I'm going to get a gold pass!" Needless to say, he never did, but he kept trying! A+ for effort Adam! Adam was an active member of the shoutin' and hollerin' West Wing Cafeteria Euchre club. In the future, Adam hopes to liven up the grounds at CCH with his expertise as a landscape architect. Good Luck!

NICK FRY
Who could forget this spaz?! Nick "Don't call me Fred" Fry can be seen whizzing in and out of the CCH parking lot with his brown Rabbit filled with people. We're not sure of Nick's plans and we're not sure that Nick is sure. Anyway, we are sure that whatever Nick does, he'll be having a good time!

SONYA GAMMAL
Abja has more absentees at classes than parties and her participation was well appreciated. Sonya has many memories from barn parties and loves to associate with cops before grade 10 dances. Without Sonya, Jacqueline and Paula would have had a lonely five years of high school. Good luck at McGill.

JOE GASPAR
Joe is a favorite of all the teachers at CCH. (Especially Father Thompson) How else could he pull off a 92% in Grade 13 World Politics? During his spare time Joe play's intramural sports. Have a good life Joe.

TERRI GILBERT
Terri is one of the most promising nuclear physicists in London. She is going to New Mexico Tech to learn to do neat things like blow up the world. What a typical American! Terri's infamous New Year's Eve Party has made her mommy the most popular postal worker in Canada.

NATALIE GODIN
During the past summer, Natalie held five jobs at once, but after school started, she narrowed it down to two. If she's not at school, you can probably find her at Texaco or Bootlegger. She's easy to recognize. Natalie is always smiling, but we're not sure why. She plans to go to France next year to attend university. Good luck!

PAUL GRECH
The "Grecher" is one of our favorite big men on campus. Nicknamed "Hammer", we can all figure out why he's such a great hockey player. He is hoping to get a U.S. Scholarship from the NHL. If all else fails I'm sure he'll end up pigmyspear (?) chucking in the jungles of Africa. Good Luck Paul!

LYNDA GRENIER
Lynda has the school spirit we've all been looking for. She loves tennis, swimming, COR and . . . Grand Bend, but then who doesn't. Lynda hopes to go to Western next year, and continue with teacher's college so she can become an Elementary School teacher. Well, good luck Lynda!

PAT GOSLING
Pat will be best remembered for his great contributions to CCH theatre. He has been involved somehow with nearly every school production during his 5 years. Pat is a great guy with a great sense of humour. We'll miss you next year Pat.

ANGELA GROSHOK

Ange is one of CCH's most energetic seniors. She enjoys skating, baseball and partying. She is a Dorchester woman, and wants to say thanks to all those involved in getting a bus instead of a van to pick her up. Good Luck at Fanshawe!

PETER HAGGARTY

Haggs served as vice-president of S.C. this year, and we're afraid that having all that POWER has gone to his head. Now he never even apologizes for being obnoxious. Although Pete plans to attend UWO, we know that deep down inside his real ambition is to become a lumber jack (there has to be a reason for those plaid shirts). Well, whatever you do Haggs, best of luck!

MIKE HAMILTON

"Hammy" knows just about everything there is to know about everyone. Just ask him. Mike's a fantastic guy with a great sense of humour. Enough teasing though. Good luck "finding yourself" next year. We're sure you'll be happy with whatever you find.

CHING MAN HO

Melody can probably be seen behind her camera saying "Cheese Please." She is one of the few people who actually likes the dress code. Melody really liked CCH and she will remember all her fond memories she has acquired during her years here. Her future plans include attending U.W.O. and becoming a teacher. Good luck at Western Melody!

MICHAEL HARDY

Mike joined the rowing team to build a body beautiful for the summer. He is well on his way to accomplishing his goal and if he ever learns to get in the boat without tipping it, I'm sure he'll make a great oarsman.

BARB DA FONSECA

Otay! Barb will always be remembered for her sarcastic wit, carefree attitude, for being tardy, rebelling against the dress code, and for getting innocent students into trouble. This wild and crazy chick predicts social work in her destiny. Boa Sorte Barb!

JUNE HAYTER

June is one of our very distinguished members of the Yearbook Staff. She is one of our many talented photographers. She tells us that her most memorable event is Mr. O'Donnell's centerfold . . . I'm sure many people remember June! Good luck next year at Ryerson!

KEVIN HEHIR

Kevin is our tall, blond blue-eyed king of the Gauche. Kevin was the class rep of the year in 85-86 and he was the President of the now defunct Stuntman Club. Kev spends his spare time working out with Nerf weights and is quite active with cutlery activities. Kevin wants to get into Radio Broadcasting or Journalism and hopes to attend Ryerson next year. Good Luck Kevvian!

SUSAN HOCHSTENBOSH

Susan has learned that getting a 90% overall average just isn't good enough. Susan loves the uniform and believes that navy blue will rule forever . . . so why doesn't she ever wear it? Her most memorable event at CCH was attending the semi-formal, which was complete with goldfish. Her future plans are to work as a volunteer at Victoria Hospital for the rest of her life or to go to Western since she's already bought the jacket. Good Luck, Susan!

JASON HOGAN

Jason is a real man. A real big man. With his chiselled good looks and his Hulkster bod, girls & boys alike melt when he is near. Jason hopes to display his football prowess at Western University next year.

HANNAH HSU

Hannah was only with me for the first semester this year, and returned to Hong Kong for the rest of the year. She is a bright and bubbly person who loves music and singing. She hopes to return next year to attend Western and then leave Hong Kong. Good luck, Hannah!

JENNIFER HOPE

Jen has enjoyed CCH to the hilt but insists that she will never wear blue and white again. Miss Hope's recreational activities include aerobics, swimming and guarding at the "Y". Jen's real ambition is to start a franchise selling saunas. Good Luck and send us a postcard!

JOHN HORVATH

John has contributed a great deal to CCH in the 5 years he has been with us. Not only did he manage our football team but he also played a major role with our basketball team. John was also a water-boy for the Globetrotters. With this impressive history we're sure you'll have a great future. Lots of luck!

FRANCO IELAPI

During Lunch Franco can be found playing three-dimensional chess with Mrs. C. after school. You can catch a glimpse of him racing around the track. Franco's idol is Ben Johnson. Good Luck Franco.

VINCE IEMMA

Vince is a very hard working person, but not just at school. He likes to pump iron. He likes to sweat. He also has other interests. Vince also enjoys the game of soccer. His most memorable occasion was when CCH won the City Soccer Finals in '84.

GINO S. IANNI

"Rhino" can be seen at Southland Bowling with Max during his spare time. He has learned that attending Grade 13 Religion classes are the best way to totally lose your mind and become completely lost. Gino's future plans include attending U of B (University of Budweiser) and following Mr. Pat Proulx who was a six-year man! Good luck!

JOANNE IANNINO

"Dingy" is one of the intellectual Italians at CCH. She's managed to always get one of those gold passes and is more than happy to help those who are failing. Usually she's quite calm, but don't hit her with a surprise quiz at 9 o'clock in the morning. She is truly an asset to CCH and will no doubt succeed. Good luck!

ALBERT JASINSKI

Alby will long be remembered at C.C. High for his low profile and quiet ways. From tea cozies to bell bottoms it's quite obvious Mrs. J. listened to too much Joanie Mitchell in 1968. His pilgrimage to Jamaica was truly a religious experience. Al's thoughts on his future at King's "I am ready now, MON!"

ALEX JANAVICIUS

"Al" as he is commonly known, or "Big Shooter" as he wants to be known, is an investor. He has bought heavily into Ralph Lauren. He has a teddy bear named JACK of which he is very fond.

ALLAN JAMBROSIC

Allan will do anything for kicks, one of his favorites being chess. CCH has taught him never to take things seriously because life is too short. Good luck forming a world superpower Allan.

ED KACZOR

This rather quiet young man is actually a driving force on defence for our hockey team. Ed also entertains in class with his quick wit and biting sarcasm. Ed likes to "Call the Office" after hours as well.

PAUL KANG

Paul, better known as P.K., has something to be proud about during his years with the Band and Orchestra. Yes, folks, Paul has NEVER missed the morning rehearsals, and won the award for "BEST ATTENDANCE". Paul's future plans include not being a quitter. Just ask him how much he spends on lotteries! He's confident of winning the 649 jackpot because he feels that God will reward him for having faith in luck. GOOD LUCK!

KRISTA KEARNS

Krista has a bridge in her living room and is employed by the PUC. She is talking in circles and loves calculus class. It's rumoured she and Brian D dressed up as a pair of women while in grade 2! Really? She enjoys soccer and some people on the sidelines! Good luck next year!

MICHELLE KEHOE

What can we say about Mouse. Some might say they don't see Michelle too much. I say look in either the pit or behind Todd. Michelle will be gracing our halls again next year. Michelle's favourite school next to ours is Westminster. Lots of Luck in your future years.

NICOLE GAUTHIER

Nic loves badminton, tennis, men with receding hairlines, and her fellow St. Joe's employees!! When she's not whining, and getting her way, she's trying to get her beautiful brown Pinto into reverse. Good luck at university to a girl whose favourite words are, "But Mom . . ."

DREW KINSLEY

Drew is known for his sarcastic and obnoxious behavior. That's not always true. Drew is witty and intelligent and adds a bit of life to his classes. We're not sure what Drew holds in his plans for the future.

MARY-ANN KOTNJEK

Mary-Ann has learned that getting from the top floor of one wing to the top floor of the other wing is virtually impossible. Mary-Ann thinks that we should get rid of blue and white and change it to green and black, and her most memorable moment was receiving her bus pass. Her future plans include becoming a professional student in the city of Toronto or Ottawa. Have a good life!

PATRICIA LAM

Patricia likes listening to music, playing the piano, watching videos, and cycling. Pat has learned that CCH is too crowded with little grade nines. Her future plans are to study for the rest of her life at U.W.O. or at U of T. Well, Patty, have a good life and enjoy studying.

BRADY LACROIX

Brady or Odie as he likes it, says that insanity is a venture. Brady also isn't sure about his future. His most memorable occasion at CCH was when Mr. Fekete turned red when he yelled at him. Have fun Brady. It's been a slice.

MIKE LANG

Mike is one of the newer members of the rowing team. His future plans are to make the national team and to become a successful executive. Right now he is just concentrating on getting through high school and opening up a summer business. I sure hope you succeed.

LIZ LANGLOIS

Liz was nominated for the Ernie McTavish award. Liz was also involved in the Senior Rowing team along with her two sisters. She was also part of the folk choir which was present at every mass. Liz had enthusiasm unmatched by anyone but her sister and CCH will miss her friendliness and smiling face. Good luck to you in the future in whatever you do.

PATRICIA LANGLOIS

Tish (not 'Trish' like normal people) has a deep hatred for pigs and children(!?) but will do just about anything to convince us of the opposite! Just ask her . . . if you can keep up with her - this gal is always on the move! Whether it be running, cross-country, rowing, skiing, swimming, she is doing it. She was also actively involved in the Peace & Development and Art clubs, as well as being a prefect. Next year, University seems to be in order for Tish.

ADA LEE

Ada likes to play the piano and is very interested in listening to music. She gave very good comments on all the teachers and she thought that they were very kind. Ada wants to be a teacher in her future. Good luck Ada.

BEN LEGGE

Ben did an outstanding job as quarterback for our senior football team, then he disappeared. Word has it he was filling in for John Cougar Mellencamp because Mellencamp had laryngitis. Ben has spent most of his second semester at Beal studying to be a fashion designer.

MATT LENEHAN

Just look at this face. Sort of makes you want to go out and hug a walrus doesn't it? Matt worked out this last year and as a result he has gained 74 pounds. Matt is good friends with Mary, so good he asked her to marry him, but then he found out she was already married. Matt is a genius.

JOANNE LEVY

Joanne served on Council as President for the CIA during her Grade 12 year. She loved it, as it gave her a chance to become closely involved with the students and school. "Jo" enjoys singing, swimming, peppermint ice cream, Bloss and COR. At CCH, this girl has learned that most of the Jo's are male Italians. Good Luck next year at Ryerson Joanne!

LEEANNE LEVY

Leeanne is well known for her musical attributes. With her twin sister, Joanne these two have mastered harmony! Lee's involvement with the swim team was much appreciated. Good Luck in your endeavors as a journalist, Leeanne.

MAX LLOYD

Swell is CCH's Favorite chocolate man. Swell's favorite times from CCH include bowling with Gino at Southland (semi-formal night), the DS-TG under age caps club and winning the student council presidential election in grade 11. (the first time the votes were counted) No one quite knows what Max is going to do with the rest of his life! Good Luck Smax!

NGA YANG LIANG

You've probably known her as Janet. She loves singing, swimming and cycling. She'll always miss great CCH assemblies, school dances and of course, her friendly classmates. Janet plans to go to Western and then on to Hong Kong to help her dad in the family business. Good Luck Janet!

PAUL LOBO

Paul is one of those natural brains at thinking of every way to skip school. Believe it or not he is planning to become a doctor. Get ready, world, for the next Dr. Hawkeye (Alan Alda). He is overjoyed to get out of High School. Aren't we all? Good Luck at U.W.O., Doc!

PAUL LOFTUS

Paul can often be seen sporting his "tough" black leather motor-cycle riding jacket, and his varnets while actually driving his family "Autos" (No, silly, not his place of employment, but his family station-wagon). He's continuously fashionably late. But seriously though Paul, are you going out with Cheryl or Barb!!!! (J.K)

TIM LONG

See Baby; Baby is big; Baby is very big. Baby has the biggest feet in the history of CCH, in fact the history of mankind. Baby plays football and basketball. Baby plays well. We love Baby.

KELLY LONGHURST

Kelly likes to sit at the back of Mr. Cole's class and giggle. Her favorite occupation is talking about the weekend. Kelly thinks she might go to university next year if she gets around to it. If not she may make it the year after if she feels like it. Whatever her whim we're sure she'll have fun in the future.

HELENA LOPES

Helena has learned at CCH that you don't always get what you want out of life. When Helena was in grade nine here at CCH, she got a pie in the face at the rock assembly and as a remembrance she still hasn't washed it off. Helena plans to attend UWO next year in hopes of becoming a millionaire. Good Luck!

MICHELLE MAHOOD

Michelle gets lost easily but always has someone to tell her "If we keep going straight, we'll meet Whamcliffe Road." Well Michelle can laugh just about anything off, and helps to keep us all in a jovial mood. Michelle would make a great psycho-analyst but alas, lacks the math background so we'll settle with a career as a chauffeur!! Good Luck Michelle!

NEIL MACKINNON

Neil is seen strolling the halls with his designer pink sweaters. He likes golf, women and money. Neil has learnt that friends are more important than school and that partying is the best. Good luck at Western.

MICHELLE MARENTETTE

Wherever there is a Corey Hart concert you can be sure Mitch is there. Besides Corey though, Michelle loves baseball, biking and drawing. She is hoping to attend Windsor University next year and to go into commercial art, but if not, I'm sure she'll be catching up on her sleep. Right Mitch?

SCOTT MARRATTO

Scott is another recruit from Woodstock. As the J. Allan Taylor nominee, Scott can attribute this to his involvement with the Development and Peace Club. He can also be found rowing down the Thames with the other lightweight men. Scott plans on attending King's College next year. We wish him the best.

ANGELENA MARSMAN

Angie was quite a force on many CCH teams through high school. She often wears moonboots and is referred to as "animal ange" on the b-ball court. She did track & field, played volleyball and was a great supporter of CCH sports. She participated in some of the theatre arts performances and loved playing at basketball tournaments around U of T. Good luck in the future.

BARB MARTIN

Barb Martin is the spikety new addition to CCH who joined us last fall. Some people who start CCH late have a problem integrating into the fast paced life. Barb had no such luck. CCH had a problem integrating into Barb's fast paced life. I don't know what will become of Barb but she will certainly leave CCH on the rebound.

TYLENE LUSSIER

Tylene is the captain of this year's cheerleading squad!! You've done a super job! She hopes to attend Western next year and to go on and become an elementary school teacher. Her final thought as she leaves CCH is that finally another brick has been laid in her road to success. Good luck in life Tylene!

DAVID MARTINELLI

Dave is one of those computer whizzes who loves to sit all day and program. Definitely a future oriented guy. He likes playing baseball and watching movies. He hopes to attend Fanshawe next year and to pursue a career in (guess what ...) computer programming. Good Luck Dave!

LUISA MARTINS

"Wheezy" may be one of the smaller thirteens but is never overlooked. Luisa is always smiling and energetic except in Period E religion. She likes C.C.H. men but spends some of her spare time searching the phonebook for meaningful relationships. Luisa is also one of our part-time Beal artists.

FRANK MATUS

Frank really loves to party. He feels that it should be made into a 2 credit course. Frank isn't quite sure what he's going to do next year but we're pretty sure he'll have a good time doing it. Good luck!

JAMES MCCARVELL

Jim has developed into one of the fastest of the speedsters at CCH. Jim played a big part in the success of the senior boys volleyball team. His easy-going character makes him a lot of fun to be around. Rumour has it that Jim may be returning next year. We'd be glad to have you back!

VICKI MCCHRISTIE

Vicki is a real nice girl who has a real nice smile and a real nice personality. Vicki is a smart girl and will probably be going to Western to become even smarter. Thanks for making CCH a happier place to be jailed in. Good luck in the future.

JEFF MCLEOD

Jeff is usually a somewhat quiet, fun-loving guy until he steps out on the ice. He becomes a brutal, intimidating force and is known for his unrelentless hustling. How could a guy this innocent looking be so vicious? Well, Jeff, you have proved that hockey turns boys into men. Go Jeff Go!

MARGARIDA MEDEIROS

In her junior years Marg was one of the ever popular cheerleaders but decided to resign to cheering in the stands. Marg will always remember the fun times at C.C.H. except for the Christmas bash at Centennial Hall. Marg hopes to attend Ryerson and take fashion designing.

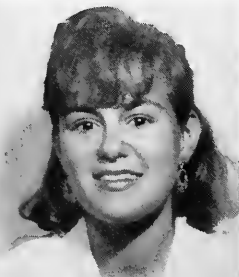

HARRY MEYER

Mild mannered Harry appears to be simply a quiet polite intellectual. But wait! The "Beast of Passion" has graduated from CCH. He stalks the streets. Hurry! Lock your doors. Hide your daughter because Harry is out for revenge. Good luck Harry!

MAGGIE MCLEOD

In between cliff diving, elephant hunting on Safari, and mud wrestling, Maggie is a very active member of the orchestra and the CIA. She is also involved in the YAT movement (Youths Against Teachers) in which she has successfully learned how to skip class. Good luck next year at Western!

BRIAN MINHINNICK

Brian became CCH's designated Period A Spare's All Time Euchre 5A1 expert. Brian's extraordinary skill encouraged many to be late for their classes. Brian is very good at all games especially hockey and girls. Minhinnik will surely excel in the Euchre game of life.

MARGARET MITCHELL

Marg is a Mountie recruit and we're really glad! She's been involved in a big way with the Knightrider staff, lending an artistic and thoughtful hand. Her warm & ready smile can brighten the dulllest day. We wish you luck Marg!

JOHN PAUL MOCZULSKI

John Paul is the resident entrepreneur at CCH. John is a great photographer and is always making a quick buck selling his pictures. When John grows up he wants to be Ronald Reagan. Good Luck J.P.!

COLIN MURRAY

Colin's world revolves around two interests - running and Caroline. Running is more than an interest, however, and will undoubtedly be what brings him fame and fortune. Caroline may become more than an interest too. At any rate, keep up the good work Colin. CCH has many fond memories of you and you've done alot to make us proud.

SAM MORREEL

Sam's hobbies include bodybuilding and music. His favorite ice cream is Tutty-Frutty. His comments about the dress code will not be included in this writup due to unforeseen language that is not acceptable at CCH. Sam is the only grade 13 that likes all the cafeteria food. He plans to attend U of Waterloo in hopes of becoming a somebody. His final words: "Good-bye".

CHRIS MORRISSEY

During the winter seasons, Chris is usually found hibernating in the school library and in the warmer seasons he can be found out on the field playing baseball. Chris' ambitions include attending that prestigious educational institution on the hill and studying law. Good Luck and Enjoy!

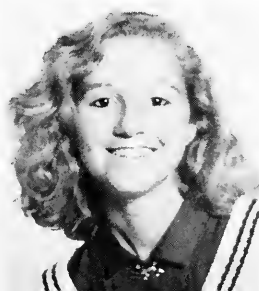

MARK MUTTON

Mark says that CCH has taught him how to sleep with his eyes opened. But during his most memorable event at CCH he wasn't asleep because he saw people cut classes to protest Katimavik while in English class. His future plans are to study Law and music at Western or Fanshawe. Good luck Mark.

ELIZABETH NASTASI

Elizabeth's interests include body surfing and sky diving along with skiing at Blue Mountain with Crasher. Her future plans are to become a psychiatrist. Her memorable events at CCH include our Red Feather Games and the Grade 10 Halloween Dance. She'll be attending Western next year. From all of us at CCH, Good luck.

ARTHUR NARAGATSJIAN

Arthur can be found racing around the squash courts at the London Squash Club. When Arthur is not playing squash he is quite the avid partier. Good Luck in the future Art.

CARLO NG

Carlo enjoys soccer and sherbert and has been very successful in school with chemistry, calculus, physics, etc. (you get the picture). Carlo has enjoyed CC High, but will be glad to move onto bigger and better things at UWO. Good luck!

LISA MAGUIRE

Lisa is a part of the Royal Canadian Army Cadets and enjoys it very much. Lisa believes that the dress code is a good way to brainwash students into believing that dressing a certain way will improve your IQ level. Lisa hopes to get an apprenticeship at a Printing Company in the future. All the luck to you, Lisa!

PAUL O'BRIEN

"Baul" is quite a guy. He has been an integral part of CCH's track and cross country teams, and was also head of the Prom Committee and past BAA. Such ambition makes CCH what it is today. Good luck!

STEPHEN O'BRIEN

Steve took the plunge and became a member of the winning Senior Boys Cross Country team in the '86 season. Among other things, Steve spends his time hanging around the cafeteria, jokin' with the boys, looking intelligent and just plain having fun. Keep it up Steve. We'll be watching out for you!

CORY O'DONOVAN

Cory O' can be thanked a million times for her generous contributions to the 87 Prom titled "We've Only Just Begun." Basically Koran's a very quiet person with certain people but when she's with Neil she's one crazy lady! Congrats for winning Prom Queen and Good Luck at Queens next year, Book!

SALLY OLIVEIRA

Sally is a truly energetic person. The kind that always seems to be running around but doing actually nothing. This must be because she's involved in the Co-op program, but we don't know for sure because she didn't hand in a questionnaire.

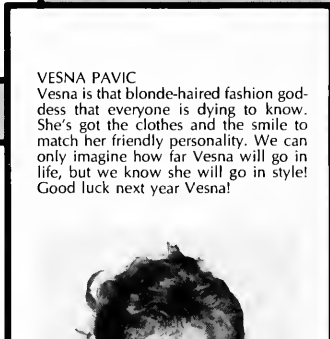

LISA OVERHOLT

Lisa loves to paint, draw and watch Saturday morning cartoons. She is also one of CCH's own cheerleaders and can be seen cheering on those football players. Lisa will be attending either Ryerson or Western next year to become an architect or advertising artist.

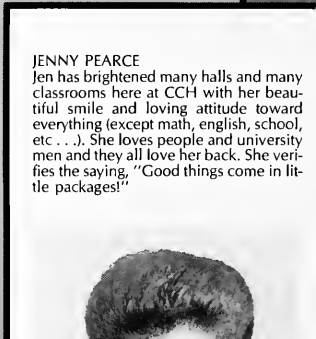

RITA PALUMBO

Rita loves spending money. Her hobbies include men, and clothes, but she's come to learn the 'golden rule' at CCH - no outward affection at any time on school ground. Rita is relieved that her days at CCH are over, but she says that it was fun while it lasted.

VESNA PAVIC

Vesna is that blonde-haired fashion goddess that everyone is dying to know. She's got the clothes and the smile to match her friendly personality. We can only imagine how far Vesna will go in life, but we know she will go in style! Good luck next year Vesna!

JENNY PEARCE

Jen has brightened many halls and many classrooms here at CCH with her beautiful smile and loving attitude toward everything (except math, english, school, etc. . .). She loves people and university men and they all love her back. She verifies the saying, "Good things come in little packages!"

SANDRA PAULIUK

Sandra is a smart gal. She knows how to avoid eating in the cafeteria and she LOVES music!! Sandra has contributed her talents to the CCH Orchestra and the London Youth Symphony. Her future plans include attending UWO and later studying music in the States or Europe. Good luck Sandra.

MONICA PEASE

Mon is basically a good time chick. It seems like she's always in a good mood and she'll cheer you up when you're not.

PATRICIA DESENSI

Patricia is the girl who is always either leaving early or coming late from a class at Beal. We figure she must be either terribly artistic or into autobody repair. She always looks great. In fact we're not quite sure how she gets her hair to stay in that position perpetually. Good luck in the future Patricia. We're sure that whatever you choose to do will be just right for you.

CATHY PEIRCE

Cathy enjoys dancing, music, and dancing to music. Cathy has finally learned how to sing the Crusader's song this year and we are definitely proud of her! She loves the navy blue and white effect for the dress code. Cathy's future plans include going to Western and learning how to own a store; otherwise, she believes that Real Estate is the answer. Good luck!

CAROLINE PETER

In the seemingly short three years that she's been with us Caroline has definitely made her presence known. Her sport is rowing and until recently, it used to take up a lot of her time. She is one of the sweet innocent young ladies from Mount St. Joseph's. Best of Luck!

PAUL PENDER

Paul's hearty yet mischievous grin was welcomed by the female population at CCH. His rowing skills contributed to CCH's successful team. Paul will go down in History for walking through the cafeteria "au naturale." Pet Peeve's include any girls who spend their Friday's at Centennial Hall.

JON PENZA

Jon is our resident apple-pie-face boy. Just look at his face. Makes you kind of want to pinch his cheeks or something doesn't it? Jon has had a very successful year in basketball and will be missed, to say the least, next year (as will be his barn bashes). Good luck in the future Jon!

IAN PICKERSGILL

Ian played hockey. He did well. Ian played against Brendan Shannahan, Brendan Shannahan did well. Brendan is Ian's hero. Go, Ian, Go. NHL, here you come.

KAREN PISCHEDDA

Karen is a real nice, sweet, friendly girl who knows how to put a smile on everyone's face. Karen can be seen working at "Treat" in Eaton's food court downtown, baking cookies and even putting happy faces on them with icing. We don't know what she's planning on doing next year but we wish her the best of luck.

THOMAS PLOMMER

Tom is quite the hockey fanatic, and can he cut up the ice! He believes in the army motto and always tries to "be all he can be." He can't stand the dress code (you're kidding), and he leaves us with these words: "It's been a blast! Wasn't my first, won't be my last!" Have fun next year Tom!

ANNA POLGAR

Anna pretends that she's too shy to do seminars and speeches, but we know the real Anna! Anna is a home economics buff and she'll be a good catch. Speaking of being caught, Pali already has her nabbed. Sorry guys. Truth out Anna, we wish you luck.

MAURA POTVIN

Maura has a very strange tone of voice especially while talking to Paula White. Her eyes are too BLUE to be real (how did they get that way?) and she doesn't believe in taking a school bus. She's hoping to go to Western next year, so good luck!

JOHN QUIGLEY

Some of John's greatest accomplishments while at CCH include being on the football and track & field teams, and of course, Mr. Stranges' Calculus class. John's a great person to talk to and will always lend an ear or a piece of advice. Best of luck in the future John!

LISA REILLY

Lisa O'Reilly, Riley, Rielly has spent most of her five years at CCH teaching people how to spell her last name. She one day hopes to own a corvette, or be driven in one. We're not sure what Lisa's hopes for the future are but Good Luck in whatever!

CHRIS MURPHY

"MURF'S" hobbies include walking and standing upside-down, embarrassing people in public, and laughing at them. Chris is a really nice guy and is going to throw a party that includes burning blue and white clothing in his backyard. Chris wants to become a somebody in the future. Good luck in the future, Chris.

MARC RIOPELLE

Marc believes that the cafeteria gravy is the worst possible experience of food he has ever had! He can be seen in the VVV Café trying desperately to do his Calculus homework. Marc's future plans include attending Western in hopes of being able to make money. Lots of luck to you Marc! It's been a pleasure knowing you.

FAY RODY

Fay is a girl who loves to party. She's been involved with the CCH swim team for the past years and has placed very well. Her plans include P.U.C. life-guarding and next year attending Waterloo University, possibly to become a chartered accountant. Good Luck Fay, you'll make it!

NATALE RONDINELLI

Noel is one of those (sweet) Italians who love to hang out by the windows in the W.W. Dining Lounge. He loves skipping class and playing football, which he will hopefully be able to do next year at Western (football only of course). Noel's very definite plans for the future include working in a bank, getting married and having three kids. Good luck!

THERESA ROSS

Men and fun are what interest Theresa which is why she'll be going to "Fun-shawe" next year in the hopes of really starting to LIVE! Theresa plans to go into the nursing field and have a good and happy life. We're sure you will Theresa!

RENATA RZESZUTKO

Renata is interested in theatre and she helped construct the set for the Diary of Anne Frank. She loved her period A, B, E spares and the proms. She hopes to go to Fanshawe next year to pursue a career in Journalism — Broadcasting. Good luck!

MARK ROSATI

Mark loves his classical music (playing it and listening to it). Mark is recruiting members for the new Ghostbusters, with designs on "Riding the world of disease by means of a parasitical subterfuge". Ah-ha! Good luck next year!

WALTER SA
Walter maintains that his enrolment at CCH was essential to his educational process; otherwise, he would never have learned any profane Italian. Walter enjoys those intellectual conversations concerning the mathematical probability of attaining a proficient numerical status on a test, without enduring the physical and emotional strain caused by homework. Lots of luck to you in the future, Walter.

JAY SANTIAGO
Jay is quite the social body. Maybe that's why he is hard to find around school. He's in a band and has played in various clubs around London such as the Office. We are not sure what Jay's future holds but we are sure that he will have fun in whatever. Good luck Jay!

MARIA SANTOS
Maria has blessed us at CCH for 5 years with her bright and cheery smile. She loves people and feels that friends are very important. Maria is hoping to attend Fanshawe next year to go into business management or become an educated "bum". Lots of luck Maria!!

DAVID SCHAT
Dave and his blonde curly afro added a new dimension to the CCH football team. Dave wants to become an architect and start the Fourth Reich and conquer German Clubs on Friday Nights.

ROB SELENIS
Rob left us in grade 11 to go to Laurier for their technical courses, but CCH proved its superiority and he returned here for grade 13. Rob is in the Knight-Rider, art and photography, and he hopes to one day have his own advertising agency. Good luck Rob!

FRANK SERRATORE
Frank's interests include driving and chocolate ice cream . . . Is there a connection? He says that he has learned at CCH how to live with a dress code which is a -2 on a scale of 1 to 10. Frank hopes to go to Laurentian University next year.

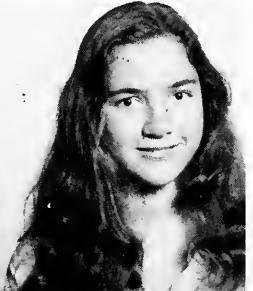

SUSAN SHORT
Susan enjoys swimming and going to the beach. Maybe that's why she had so much fun in Florida over the March break. Susan enjoys Italian men and Linda T. She hopes to go into Urban Affairs and Real Estate. Good luck in the future, Susan!

STEPHANIE SINKO
Stephanie loves jello wrestling. We don't mean she watches it, she actually participates! If she's not at school she can be seen at the beach, no matter what the weather. Stephanie has learned at CCH how to be a BIG SHOOTER. Stephanie's future plans are to attend UWO for occupational therapy. Have fun, Stephanie!

MAJELLA SKRINDA
Majella's hobbies and interests include biking, music, and practicing music (orchestra). She also tells us that she loves Italian lemon ice cream from the Marconi Club. Majella is hoping to go to Western next year; if not, she wants to study in Europe and travel. Have fun next year!

DAVE SKUFCA
Here's a Top Gun hopeful. He's a nice guy who is always trying to get out of class. He's one of those guys who works hard for good marks but . . . Dave enjoys eating jello in the morning and working at his gas station. Good luck next year!

CHRISTOPHER SLABON

Mr. Chris is one of CCHigh's more intelligent breeds. He excelled in Mr. Kellett's chemistry class by discovering new methods of making TNT. Together Chris and Matt W. are planning terroristic ways to take over the sports department at Sears. He has decided to continue to develop his sky diving skills and to attend UWO. Well Chris, whatever you do, good luck!

PATRICK SLOAN

Pat darkened the doors of C.C.H. in eleventh grade. Since then he's spent his time terrorizing innocent girls in the hallways. Pat has kept busy running track and playing junior hockey as well as coaching 5-8 year olds. Pat will probably attend Western next year, majoring in Phys. Ed. Good luck, Pat.

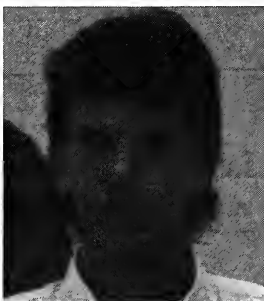

NANCY SLYKERMAN

Nancy was one of our stars on the curling team and was at her best in her kilt on the ice. During her last year, Nancy has grown to despise the game Euchre as it distracts her favorite "shooter". Nancy plans to enter nursing. Good Luck.

ROB SMITH

Rob says he studies five hours a night (yeah, right), and dreams of leading "his" Blue Jays to the pennant. His hobbies include women, women, and (well, you get the picture). He's one of the finalists in the non-Italian CCH Party King contest, and if you ask me he's a shoe-in. See ya at The Keg!

DAVID TRBIZAN

Dave won the outstanding Student Council Award and played in the infamous band, "Glass Turkey". He was accused of being a fascist dictator, but this was incorrect being that he was just a little capitalist minded. He plans to attend York University and seek a position on Student Council there. David hopes to become a successful politician. Best of luck, David

KATHY SOCE

Kathy has been very involved at CCHigh, being on both the basketball and volleyball teams. She loves music and was very glad to finally see Mr. McPherson get a new car. Her future plans include moving to Toronto and attending the University of Toronto. Good luck Kathy!

CATHERINE SOPTIC

Catherine (or Cathy) is the ideal girl. She is intelligent, good looking, interesting, fun to be with. She enjoys modeling and going to wild homework parties at the frat houses on the weekend. Cathy paid me ten bucks to do her write up.

JEN STANEK

Jen is an active member of the girls' soccer and volleyball teams. Her athletic abilities have won her recognition and awards over the years here at CCHigh. Jen may be quiet in class but she is only trying to suppress her overwhelming intelligence. She loves Physics and Mr. Garinther. Good luck Jen.

CHRIS STADLER

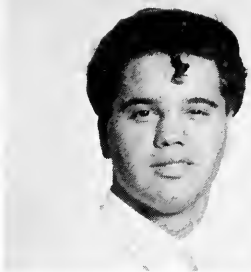

The transformation from the calm and cool Chris to the crazy? chaotic! kid we all know and love can happen at any moment, anywhere. So beware! He is on the loose and he is coming to get you! So don't try to resist, for his powers will unmercifully break down your defences and capture your heart . . . forever!

CHERYL ST. LOUIS

Cheryl loves guys and playing Euchre. She feels that her stay at CCH has taught her to do homework and appreciate colours other than blue & white. She hopes to go into accounting and someday become a CGA. Lots of Luck Cheryl!

CHRIS STYERS

Chris enjoys cycling and hiking but his favourite thing to do is attending "the Office". Chris plans to attend Carleton University and to travel. His final thoughts as he leaves CCH: "a man can only reach his peak through downright evil deeds".

KELLY SULLIVAN

Imported directly from Huntington Beach, California, this blonde bomber can be found darting around lively London in her turbo Mustang. She may be found after school baking (or BURNING) up a storm at Zed & Zee's. Instead of her "American" Express, Kelly doesn't leave home without "John". Good Luck next year Kelly!

LAURA SUSKI
 Laura is a wild and crazy girl who has brought a new meaning to fashion at CC High with her wake-up-in-the-morning hairdo. Laura wants to become a nun and President of the Tim Lonc Fan Club.

MARIE CLAIRE TAMIN

Marie Claire is one of those girls who just "wanna have fun". She loves listening to music and partying. She was glad to be at CCHigh because she has felt the spirit, but is relieved it is over. She'll be attending either Western or U of T to become a success! Good Luck Marie!

THERESA TAYLOR

Theresa enjoys swimming, biking, and tennis. She can be found running around Woolco going completely insane on $1.44 day. Her most memorable event at CCH was graduation which has left her feeling spiritually uplifted. Theresa will be seen either at Guelph, Ryerson, or Toronto University and then travelling around Europe. Have fun!

HELEN TIMMONS
 Helen can often be seen with mommy's Visa shopping down Richmond, with one or another Varsity male. May you make it Bloomies one day and marry a doctor.

LINDA TOMICIC
 Unless you were fortunate enough to have Linda in one of your classes you probably didn't see too much of her but if you did see her she was probably saying "Florida Lives". Linda has been busy working to afford Florida for a second year. (Is it worth it?) Good Luck!

MARISA TOSO
 Marisa has enjoyed her years of enriching education at C.C.H. She is hoping to get into business or perhaps be a stewardess. Marisa's favorite pastimes include mowing the lawn, swimming in her fountain and making wine. Best of luck for next year!

TINA TOSO
 This year Tina has proudly learned to distinguish between black and navy blue. Her interests include music and dancing. Toso plans to attend Fanshawe next year to get involved in the Music Industry Arts Program. Lots of Luck in the future Tina!

LYDIA TROC
 Lydia is the friendly gal who likes calling people "Foo-Foo Face" or "Foot" for short. Lydia has really enjoyed her past five years here and wants to come back for five more but since she is already so smart she wasn't allowed to come back. Lydia's future plans include staying smart, becoming rich, and later she wants to treat herself into buying a red Mustang. Good luck in whatever you "really" do, Lydia!

LEONARD TROIANO

Leonard has learned that falling asleep through every class is essential in living through the day. Leonard absolutely loves our dress code and even wears it on the weekends. Leonard can be seen in the East Wing Dining Lounge, eating the hamburgers the cafeteria staff has made for him. Lenny plans to attend U.W.O. in the hopes of becoming a first class sleeper. Good luck Lenny.

CHRISTY BROWN

Christy spent much of her grade 12 year as editor of the '85-'86 yearbook. Her dedication and hard work was very much appreciated. Christy is known for sudden vacations at the strangest times of the year! Good luck, Christy, with whatever the future holds for you.

CARRIE TSE

Our woman from Hong Kong has learned how to deal with guidance counsellors - it takes time! A big film fan, Carrie haunted London theatre as often as possible. Along with Fr. T., Carrie hopes to form the Galactic Badminton Champions. Good luck in everything you do!

ALLAN TURNER

Allan's dream in life is to have nobody roaming the halls during both lunch periods and trying to use the phone in the WW. Al will probably become the "Cafeteria Man" or take over Bill's job. May your dreams come true.

MICHELLE VAN BOMMEL

Remember Prom '86? Michelle was the rebel in the tuxedo. Michelle is the pretty girl with the beautiful mane who has spent five fun-filled years at CCHigh. We know this because we see it shining in her eyes. The more you know her the more you like her, and we know people will go on meeting you and saying this for many years to come.

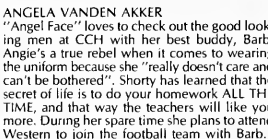

CRAIG VAN DAM

Mr. Van Dam is best known for his "collection" of classic cars. The Volkswagen, The Datsun, and the infamous "Dart" are all monuments to this young gentleman's ability to make anything purr. But seriously, fellas, just take a look at this boy's frame; sort of makes you want a door eh? See ya next year.

NANCY VANDAM

Nancy enjoys playing the organ. She is also involved in the Yearbook and has done a tremendous job with some of these writeups. She plans on becoming a nurse or going to Vancouver to become a music teacher. Good luck at Fanshawe Nancy!

ANGELA VANDEN AKKER

"Angel Face" loves to check out the good looking men at CCH with her best buddy, Barb. Angie's a true rebel when it comes to wearing the uniform because she "really doesn't care and can't be bothered". Shory has learned that the secret of life is to do your homework ALL THE TIME, and that way the teachers will like you more. During her spare time she plans to attend Western to join the football team with Barb.

SUSANNE VANDENBELT

Susanne is the tall beautiful one who has been making heads turn this year. She is a strong member of CCH's dynamic soccer team. Good luck next year at Brock, and with everything that follows. We know you'll do well.

TIM VANDAM

This is Tim's sixth year at Crusader High (see last year for write-up, part one). He has been here long enough to know that the least edible cafeteria food is "not the coffee". We'll all keep that in mind, I'm sure. An extra year at Catholic Central would do you all some good (any takers?).

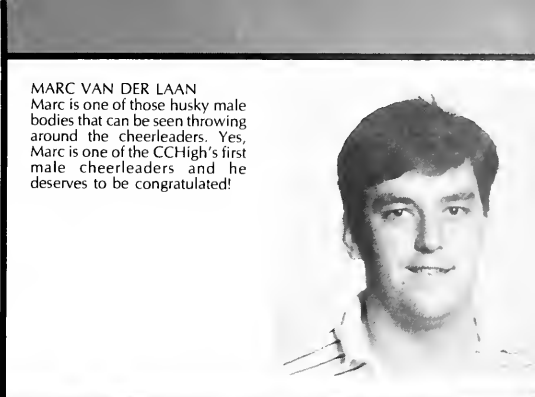

KIM VAN DER AA
Kim wants to go to Sir Wilfred Laurier University and get a Ph.D. in psychology. The best thing to happen to Kim was when Dave Tribizan's car caught fire. She also liked the hockey game between the Grade 13's against the teachers.

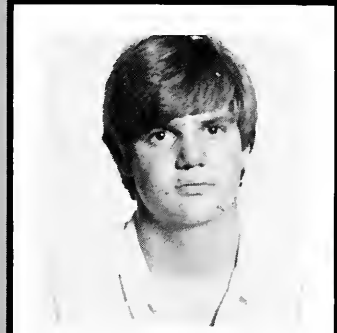

ANTONIUS VANDENBURG
This is Tom's first year with us and as of yet little is known about him. We have it on good authority that he likes redheads though. We also know that he previously attended Regina Mundi, and Medway High Schools. He is self-admittedly anti-social and claims that he is currently suffering an identity crisis. Well we'll just have to take your word for it Tom!

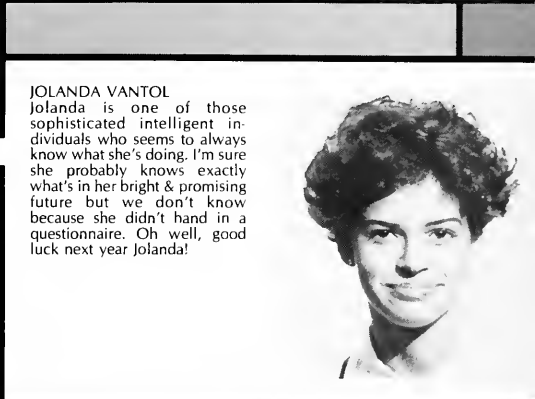

MARC VAN DER LAAN
Marc is one of those husky male bodies that can be seen throwing around the cheerleaders. Yes, Marc is one of the CCHigh's first male cheerleaders and he deserves to be congratulated!

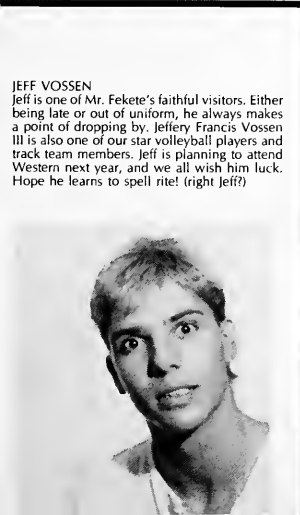

CHRISTINE VANDERWEYST
When you think of Mt. Brydges, think of Christine, or the Little Beaver Restaurant. Christine plans to go to U.W.O. next year and become rich shortly thereafter. You have to admire her determination and patience after all, - it's a long bus ride from Mt. Brydges. So next time you're at "The Beave" say HI to Christine!

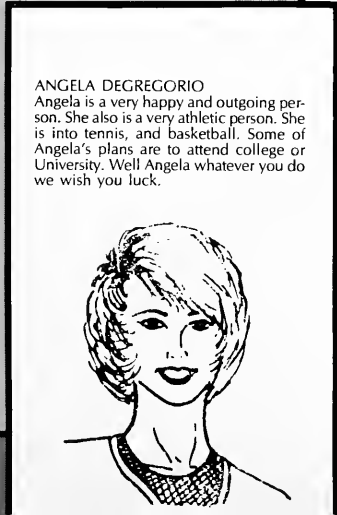

JOHN VAN PUTTEN
John is one of our CCH dress code rebels. He likes photography and is involved in the Knightrider. He is also anti-prep and hopes to one day blow up all Roots and Benetton stores. John hopes to attend Ryerson next year. Remember - "right" is wrong.

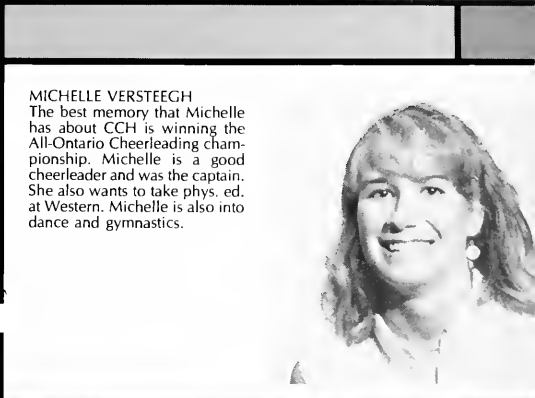

JOLANDA VANTOL
Jolanda is one of those sophisticated intelligent individuals who seems to always know what she's doing. I'm sure she probably knows exactly what's in her bright & promising future but we don't know because she didn't hand in a questionnaire. Oh well, good luck next year Jolanda!

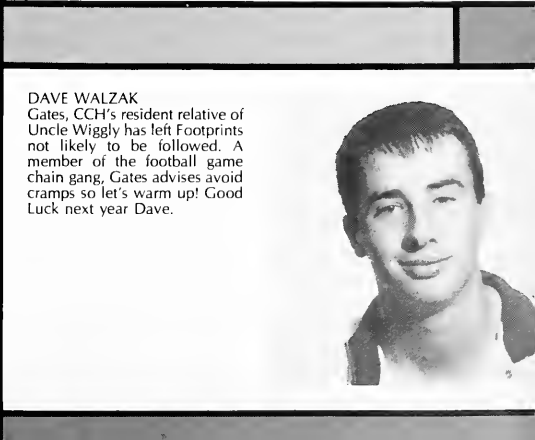

JEFF VOSSEN
Jeff is one of Mr. Fekete's faithful visitors. Either being late or out of uniform, he always makes a point of dropping by. Jeffery Francis Vossen III is also one of our star volleyball players and track team members. Jeff is planning to attend Western next year, and we all wish him luck. Hope he learns to spell nite! (right Jeff?)

ANGELA DEGREGORIO
Angela is a very happy and outgoing person. She also is a very athletic person. She is into tennis, and basketball. Some of Angela's plans are to attend college or University. Well Angela whatever you do we wish you luck.

MICHELLE VERSTEEGH
The best memory that Michelle has about CCH is winning the All-Ontario Cheerleading championship. Michelle is a good cheerleader and was the captain. She also wants to take phys. ed. at Western. Michelle is also into dance and gymnastics.

DAVE WALZAK
Gates, CCH's resident relative of Uncle Wiggly has left Footprints not likely to be followed. A member of the football game chain gang, Gates advises avoid cramps so let's warm up! Good Luck next year Dave.

ARTHUR WARCHOL
Art is a Polish patriot. He loves to ski, ski, and ski. He is also a great fan of the Toronto Maple Leafs . . . oops, I mean Leafs. Art hopes to go to UWOC next year for business. Lots of luck next year Arthur!!

JENNIFER WATCHER
Remember SKOR candy bar and you'll remember someone else. Some of Jen's favorite past times include hockey players and figure skaters (must be the ice). She also enjoys theatre. She's a great person to talk to and will always make you laugh or smile. Good Luck in the future Jen!

PATRICK YATES
Patrick for his future plans would like to be a millionaire by the time he reaches 30. That only makes sense because his favorite hobby is making money. He really liked it here at CCH but all people have to move on. Patrick has a lot of things going for him. Good Luck, Patrick!

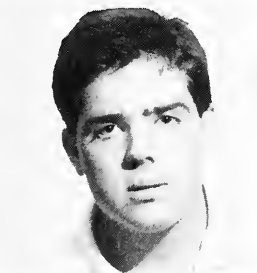

MARLIES WESTER
Oh yes, the lovely Marlies. She walks with a bell-clock round her neck . . . all in all Marlies is a pretty cool chick. Really, Legs has been a valuable asset to CCH, helping out in a big way with about umpteen jillion plays. We'll miss you. Lees.

PAULA WHITE
Well, what can we say about Paula other than she is definitely the best S.C. President CCH has ever had! Paula is another one of the Pensa party freaks and just adores Al Jasinski's Tangerine Dream Machine. She has learned that the best way to miss your classes is by joining the Student Council. Paula's future plans include becoming a nurse or the next Prime Minister of Canada. Good luck.

PAUL WHITEHEAD
Paul is the patron saint of shooters everywhere. During his time here at CCHigh, Paul's learned "half of nothing which probably isn't even worth talking about" (wow, all that?). Paul delights in the cafeteria pudding (You thought it was chocolate, Paul?), and hanging out with the Shooters at Joe Kool's.

MATT WOODCROFT
Matt can be seen amongst the regulars in the pit. His hard rebel look exterior is a cover for his soft heart, though, and he has been known to show signs of sweetness. We're not sure what Matt has planned for the future; probably more of what he's done in the past. At any rate he will surely be glad to move on from here to better and bigger things. Good luck with everything you do.

KAREN YAWORSKI
Karen really liked CCH but she has some bad feelings about leaving here. She wants to go to Fanshawe in the future and take all the business courses. Karen also enjoys playing the piano. Have fun Karen!

MIKE WRAIGHT
Mike is heavily into being in the military. He really liked it when he graduated. He likes the Canadian Forces and he would like to join them. Mike even has a crewcut! Enjoy Mike!

MARTY WYENEN
Marty is one of our students who lives out in the country and considers himself a farmer. He really enjoys playing in the band at CCH, especially when the band went to Ottawa. He wants to go to Kings College.

KATIE YOUNG
Katie in her future wants to marry the Prince of Spain. If that does not happen she wants to head out to Western. Katie also loves travelling, shopping, and spending money.

LAVINIA ZANINI
Lavinia seems to have spent a lot of time in the school library – probably catching up on algebra after a hard night's work, or another jujitsu class. Lavinia will attend Western next year and move on in life to bigger, better things.

Alas, with another fine year coming to a close, comes the time when Catholic Central's faculty and student body say farewell to those honoured Grade thirteen students who have not only put up with five years of dress code, morning announcements, selling chocolate, student council, mugshot photos, cafeteria food, prefects, guidance appointments, school buses, and administration, but who have also kept the spirit alive. To the Grade thirteens, much success and happiness!

Alumni

The weekend of December 31, marked another milestone at Catholic Central. This was CCH Homecoming Weekend, a reunion to celebrate the 35 anniversary of the school. Homecoming consisted of a wine and cheese party on Friday evening that was attended by over 700 people. During the day on Saturday, there was an open house at the school with a variety of sports events, involving young and old grads. At 4:00 pm, Bishop Henry celebrated the Eucharist in the gym and on Saturday evening, a dinner-dance was held at the Progress Building. Over 1600 people came for dinner and a large number came later for the dancing and for a chance to renew old acquaintances. By any standards, the weekend was a great success and we will look forward to other projects by the Alumni.

RED FEATHER

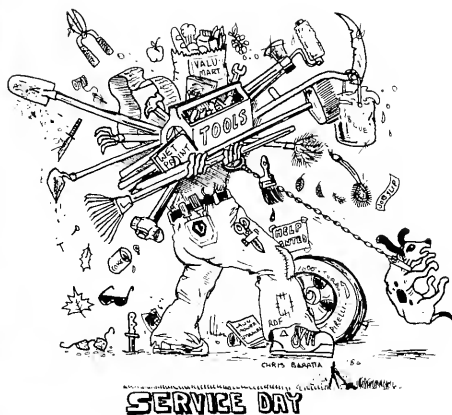

At our United Way game, our senior football giants destroyed the Montcalm Kitty Cats by an impressive score of 36 to 12, capturing the United Way Tournament championship. Outstanding performances include Jason Hogan, named offensive Mvp of the tournament and Ben Legge who showed an excellent performance as quarterback. Congratulations to all the players for an exceptional triumph!

As we rocked our way into the first entertainment assembly we all knew it would be a huge success. We relieved our Elvis memories, and CCH alumni were brought back for a wild set. The Crusader Band performed exceptionally well, our Reach for the Top team defeated the teachers, and "Side Effects" made their debut. Altogether, we must thank all those who participated for an excellent job, and thanks to Mr. Sentjens for his supervision. Here's to many more great jammin' assemblies!

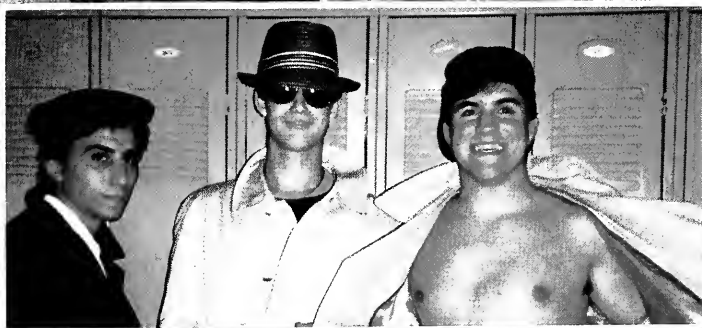

As in previous years, those community minded CCH students showed their spirit as we extended it to our community during Service Day. We showed our responsibility and dedication as Crusaders to those who needed help. All over the city, helpful Crusaders left their mark on the grateful citizens of London.

Scary! The eerie atmosphere surrounded us as masquerading Crusaders expressed their creativeness through their costumes. "Originality mentions" go to costumes such as the fingers, the buses and the ever famous dart board. Spirits were high and fun was had by all those students who attended.

YOU CRUSADERS

Centennial Hall was the place to be for the 1986 annual Christmas Assembly. Once again, Crusaders proved that the spirit of Christmas still exists. Special thanks go to all the teachers and the students who participated, and managed to make 1986 a memorable year.

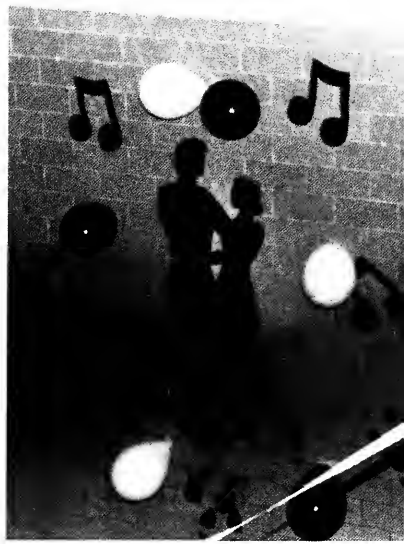

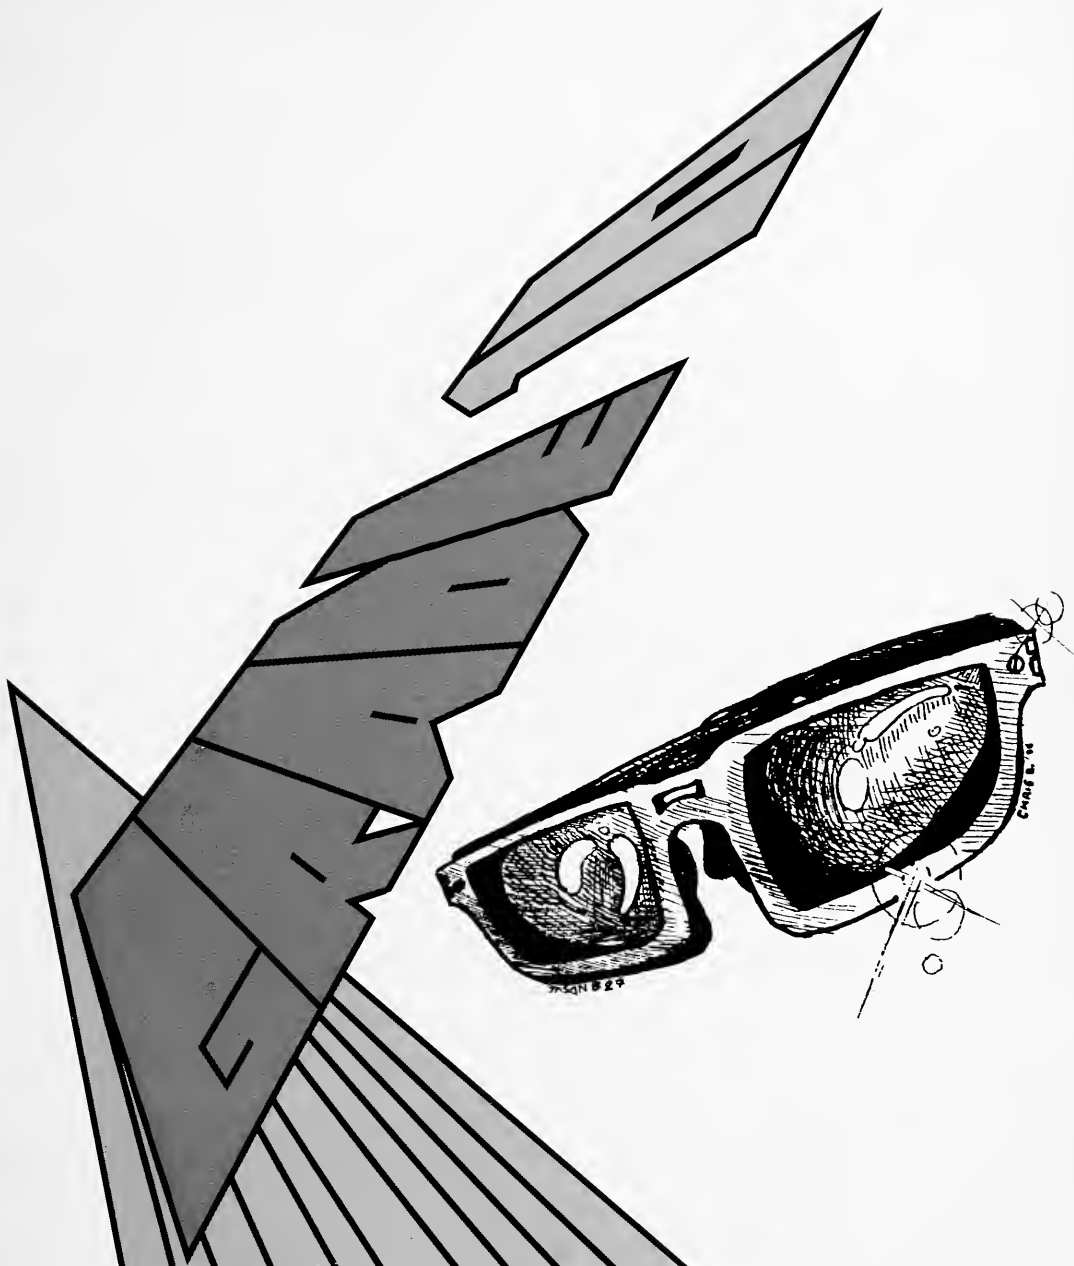

This year's Semi-Formal was truly a smashing success. The theme that was used for the event was Ben E. King's classic hit song title, "Stand By Me". Thanks should go to this year's secretaries: Lisa Colafranceschi and Lori Silvestro for a job well done on organizing and decorating for the event! With colourful lights and great music, students had no trouble enjoying themselves and dancing the night away.

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT

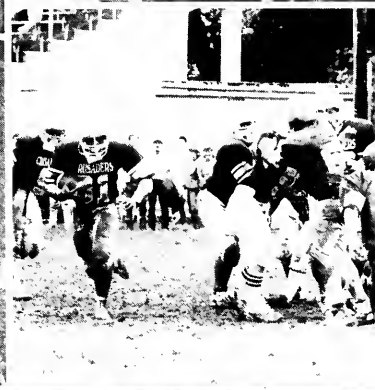

"Truly one of the best years ever!" – a routine comment from the members of our own senior society (a wild and crazy gathering of dudes and dudettes you would love to meet). This year the senior students have been making very good use of their time by actually attending classes, studying up in the library (which is the place to be during period D lunch), practising on the field or in the gym and completing homework assignments in the cafeteria while trying to play euchre at the same time (a very difficult task to accomplish but nevertheless done simultaneously). Depicted here are just some photos of Catholic Central's own notorious seniors carrying on the tradition of spirit through active participation and involvement.

TEAM ROSTER

Craig "Never Wrong" Van Dam, Michelle "The Bay" Versteegh, Marc "Mr. Extension" Van der lann, Tylene "@&&?#" Lussier, James "Jimbo" Brock, Hannah "Lights" Douthwright, Roman "Cruise" Dela Cruz, Liz "Everybody" Gigante, Jeff "Where am I" Vossen, Michelle "Where is he", Trampleasure Andrew "White Guy" Cardinal, Lee-Ann "Teeny" Greven, Lisa "Damien" Overholt, Michelle "Always There" Williamson, Advisor: Miss Hogan Coach: David Lee Tracey

On Friday May 1, the Catholic Central Cheerleaders, the Blue Crew, left for Toronto hoping to place well at the All-Ontario co-ed cheerleading championships. Most of them would have been pleased at having finished in the top five. When they came back, they were the champions. All of the cheerleaders were extremely nervous, and it showed in their first performance, but once they got started they managed to keep their cool. On Sunday, after the top ten teams from Friday and Saturday performed, the waiting began. After the scores were posted, showing Catholic Central to be first the tears began flowing. All of the practicing had paid off. The Blue Crew were the Champions. Special thanks to Coach Tracey and all the others who made winning possible.

The Senior Crusaders had an exciting and very successful year. After a perfect 6-0 regular season, we defeated Medway 21-14 in the first playoff game. In the semi-finals, the team re-enacted a repeated script very familiar to CCH. A long single with minutes remaining gave South Lions an 8-7 win. The highlight of the season came during Red Feather. After defeating Montcalm, CCH was awarded the United Way Trophy for the best team in the tournament. This years defence, led by P.J. Gleason, allowed the opposition few if any points. Offensively the team was blessed with perhaps the best running back tandem in CCH history. Jason Hogan and Jim Brock went through and around every opponent's defence. A special thanks to all players and coaches for their committment and dedication towards Crusader pride.

SENIOR VOLLEYBALL

Great expectations were not fulfilled but, not through lack of trying. The team, possessing much individual talent, failed in its attempts to form a consistent starting lineup. Led by the veterans, John Bomars, Joe Cuhak and Jim McCarvell, the team practised hard every day, but visions of a Cinderella destiny vanished with three matches against Central in the playoffs. The highlight of the season took place in the West Wing Gym where they beat the years top team, Oakridge Oaks, in an exciting series of games. The team will be very strong next year with Junior boys becoming Senior men for a season of possible victory. Good Luck.

SENIOR HOCKEY

Our Senior Hockey team had a great year finishing with a 23-10-1 overall record. After an 11-4-1 regular season record they beat South 2 games to 1 in the division semis and took on a powerful Oakridge team. After a heart-breaking loss in overtime in the first game, the team gave its all, but came up short. Thanks are extended to the team for an exciting season.

The Art Club is made up of students who are pursuing their own interests in art. This allows for activities in all forms of art such as drawing, oil painting, watercolour painting, and clay work. Students who belong to this club do not have to be registered in an art class. The only requirement is a sincere interest in art.

Once again, this year the Folk Choir did a great job leading the school in song at the school Masses. Many thanks to this small group of talented musicians and vocalists, and remember, "He who sings, prays twice."

This year's Starvathon proved to be a great success. Thirty-five Catholic Central students spent 40 hours on the weekend of April 10-12 proving that you don't have to have food to have a great time. The weekend began with a "last supper" on Friday evening and proceeded with games, sports, aerobics, movies and a dance, all of which helped to keep our minds off our empty stomachs. The weekend was not without its serious side, as well. Discussions, slide presentations and guest speakers ranging in topic from exploitation of third world workers to animal conservation to the issue of world hunger, helped us to become aware that there are still many problems to be solved in our world today. The weekend was concluded with a mass and a final meal which was appreciated by all.

In total, Starvathon '87 succeeded in raising over $1000 for the Mission Services in Tanzania run by the Precious Blood Fathers. In addition to that, it gave students at Catholic Central an opportunity to appreciate the hunger that so many people endure every day.

Special thanks are due to all those who helped out: Fr. Joe and the CIA for organization, the teachers for supervising, and of course, the participants. Without their help, Starvathon '87 wouldn't have been possible.

Starvation, selling daffodils, Apple Day, and Service Day. These were among the many events that this year's CIA, Crusaders In Action, club took part in. Many students of all grades, joined the CIA club, and they weren't sorry they did. The CIA is still going strong and everyone is looking forward to next year.

The Chess Club is a new, small group at CCH this year.

The team of Steven King, Nuno Dias and Franco Ielapi competed in the Ontario High School Chess Championships, held in Toronto.

In addition, some members of the Club took part in a tournament at A.B. Lucas.

The Club is open to anyone who is interested in learning to play chess or to experts.

DEBATING CLUB

The members of the Debating Club compete against debaters from other London and district high schools at tournaments held at the different schools. Resolutions deal with issues such as the current Immigration laws and Apartheid.

Ted Kiernan, a C.C.H. debater, won first place at the London-Hamilton Districts Debating Finals. As a result, he represented the two districts at the National Debating Finals in May.

Congratulations to all the debaters for consistently good debating throughout the school year!

The Music program had a great year, highlighted by the presentation of the award for the highest achievement and participation level for a group in the London Kiwanis Music Festival. The large ensembles performed several times, and numerous small groups and soloists from CCH competed. We all gained valuable experience from our participation. We went on a trip to Ottawa, where we played at three high schools and had lots of fun. We toured the Parliament Buildings and the city, and saw two very interesting shows at the National Arts Centre. On January 5th, the Senior Band had its first rehearsal in our new music room. On Service Day, a small concert band played at two retirement homes. They appreciated our music and we hope to do this again next year. Our studio band toured several elementary schools this year, which was a learning experience for all involved.

Thanks to the conductors, the music parents' council, the trip chaperones, and the rest of CCH for all your support.

Here at Catholic Central, it has been an exciting and educational year for our Development and Peace Club. Over $600 worth of educational supplies were sent to Nicaragua as part of the Tools For Peace Campaign. Letters were sent by many students at CCH in support of farmers seeking land reform in the Philippines. The Club united with a coalition of union and church groups to stage a protest over the use of dangerous pesticides on California grapes. Activities also included attending a lecture at King's College on Human Rights and the Farm Crisis, as well as a creation of a peace garden in the city. It was indeed a fun-filled and faith-filled year.

SADD

The hard work and efforts of the SADD Committee culminated on Monday, March 30th - the kick off day for the SADD Campaign week. Wendy Crawford, from the Attorney General's Office, spoke at two assemblies. Tuesday was parent information night with guest panelists and on Wednesday, a "Bad Mix" performance by U.W.O. students. The focus of the campaign was the Contract for Life.

SADD motto: IF YOU DRINK,
DON'T DRIVE!

TOP ROW: Mr. Cole, Kevin Gloin, Damien Dunn, Mrs. Payne. SITTING: Brigid Payne, Wai Ying Lee.

REACH FOR THE TOP

The Reach for the Top team consists of a panel of four student experts in a variety of fields who compete with similar teams from SouthWestern Ontario on C.F.P.L. - T.V. This season our team won two tight games, and entered the quarter-finals, a victory which placed it among the top eight of thirty-two area teams. Since all of our members are grade twelve students, we are looking forward to an even better season next year!

BACK ROW: Mr. Cole, Dave Curtin, Dave Malecki, Damien Dunn, Mrs. Sferrazza. MIDDLE ROW: Brigid Payne, Kim Catalano, Cassandra Crabb, Wai Ying Lee. SITTING: Mrs. Payne.

SCHOOLREACH

Schoolreach is an off-shoot of Reach for the Top. Teams from London secondary schools compete among themselves, and then go on to an area, and eventually provincial, competition. This season, the first for London schools, our team came second in the city, and advanced to the zone competition.

ELECTION COMMITTEE

The Election Committee is involved in the counting of ballots and organizing of all campaigning events.

If it were not for the Election Committee, there wouldn't be a Student Council to govern the population of CCH. So, thank you very much Father Joe, Mike Hardy and Associates.

STANDING: Pat Gosling, Jim Brock, Peter Haggarty, Max Lloyd, Mike Hardy, Al Jasinski, Marc Van der Iann. SITTING: Kevin Hehir, Paula White, Michelle Versteegh, Laura Suski, Amy Collins, Jon Pensa. PROM COMMITTEE

The major responsibilities of the Prom Committee are to establish a suitable location, hire a good band, and make appropriate arrangements for the meal. Other duties include determining the cost, establishing an annual theme, printing of the tickets, ordering the glasses, pricing the tuxedos and overseeing the election of our Prom Queen. As the big day arrives, the committee recruits volunteers and decorates the hall to reflect our chosen theme. This year the Senior Prom was organized by Cory O'Donovan and Paul O'Brien. The faculty advisor was Mr. Brian Barrett.

Crusade '87 would not have materialized without the hard work and dedication of a loyal group of individuals who have taken on the responsibility of capturing "History in the making" at Catholic Central High School. A great deal of time and effort has been devoted into creating this special collection of memories and as you look back at 1986-87, may you remember that Catholic Central was not only an institution of learning, but also a place of loving and laughter.

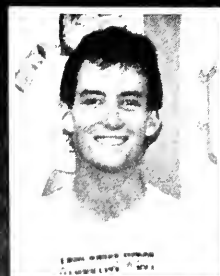

"Well, here they are, Catholic Central's own notorious 1986-87 Student Council."

G.A.A./B.A.A. REPORT

Kevin Gloin and Julie Twomey did a masterful job together this year. The Intramural sports programme was a phenomenal success. The goal was 'participation' for them this year, and it was achieved. The percentage of students who signed up and played was between 85% and 90%. The teachers proved they could hold their own as they played with their homeroom teams (a first!) Crusader spirit reached frenzied levels this season, boosted by the improved pep rallies and dedicated co-ed cheerleaders.

Julie and Kevin were also involved in all of the functions of the Student Council Executives, such as assemblies.

Thanks should also go to Max Lloyd for his spirit and Mr. Massaro for his work. It was a great year. Remember, "IRON IT OUT!!!"

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Paula White
Student Council President

Let's talk reality. It was a hard year, but a good year. It was the best of times, it was the worst of times. It was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness. It was the epoch of belief, it was the epoch of incredulity. It was the season of light, it was the season of darkness. It was the spring of hope. That was Charles Dickens - and this is your President who stumbled upon this quote and realized that it symbolized our high school years. CCH has been good to me; I had a lot of fun. I had some hard times, but it's through the hard times that we grow and mature. CCH helps you get through those growing years by giving you the opportunity to make great friends. There's a special feeling at Catholic Central and if you attended the sports playoffs, or dances, or masses you learn about that special feeling. I hope that CCH never loses it.

I would like to thank this year's council and wish good luck to next year's.

God Bless,
Your Friend,

THE CENTRAL SPRING FORMAL 1987

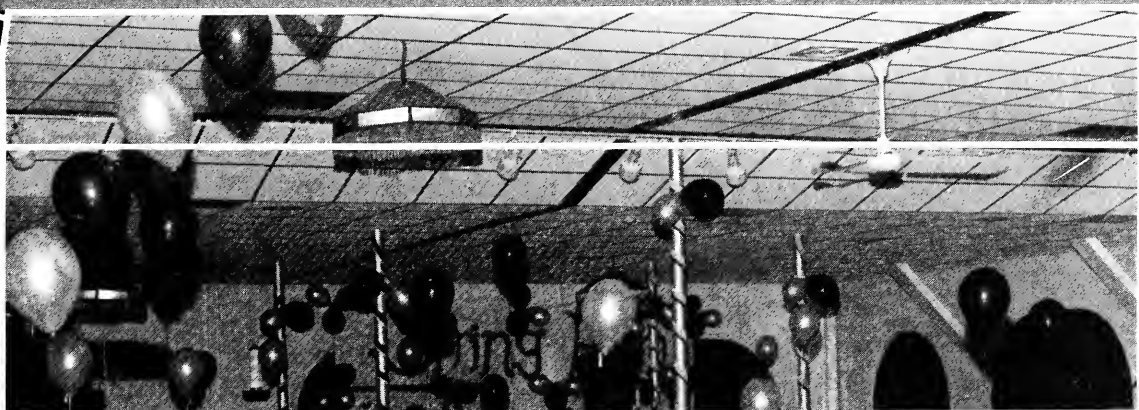

Corinne O'Donovan and Paul O'Donovan, the prom committee heads, did a terrific job in organizing this year's evening extravaganza. The Senior Prom was held at Wonderland Gardens and the Band Player, provided the music. The ladies looked absolutely gorgeous in their evening gowns and the gentlemen were amazingly stunning in their formal attire. Everybody looked and felt marvelous. The hall was decorated with balloons and the place was dimly lit, but the spirits of the Seniors were definitely not, as everybody was ready to celebrate the party to end the year with a BANG. Corinne O'Donovan won the title of Prom Queen and the theme was: "We've Only Just Begun."

"The Peace of Christ"

The peace of Christ is the peace that is gained from the cross. It is the peace of confidence in God when all the forces of Hell are working for ends that are unedifying.

It is the peace that can accept unexplained mysticisms, heart-breaking sorrows, which can see natural miracles, longed-for aspirations unrealized, Christ-like purposes broken and souls disturbed. It is the peace of a man rejected by men but chosen by God. It is the peace won by those who have felt this world to have a peace that the world cannot give. It is the peace of those who have gone beyond it, marked with the sign of faith, to reside forever in the presence of the Prince of Peace.

Let us remember that God has not promised:

"skies always blue
flower strewn pathways
all our lives through God has not promised
sun without rain
joy without sorrow
peace without pain

But God has promised:

strength for the day
joy for the labor
light for the way
grace for the trials
help from above
unfailing sympathy
enduring love

"BOOGIE POWER."

It has been a hard year, and I'll never forget it. Editing this yearbook has been a challenge and an experience.

I would like to thank a few special people without whom this yearbook would never have transpired. First and foremost there is Jehd Canceran (my right-hand man who worked day and night to get this together), Lisa Votta (whose fingers are probably still numb from typing so much), Helena, Patti, Katie, Shane, Jim, Caroline, Lucy, Dave, June, Claudia, Geoff, Mrs. Kaszowski (for typing the Gr. 13 write-ups) and Mrs. Sferrazza (for letting us use her room). Finally, I extend my deepest gratitude to my advisors Ms Rajala and Mrs. Janssen.

As you flip through these pages, and you take a trip down memory lane, remember that it took the dedication of a group of hard working students to put it together.

Good luck to next year's staff and thank you, the students of CCH for giving me some very memorable years.

Estrella Pontes

Estrella Pontes
Editor, 1987

Well it looks like another year has come and gone, and let me tell you that this year has had its ups and downs. I've had fun being the co-editor of the CCH yearbook. It has kept me up nights when I should have been asleep, and it has put me to sleep when I should have been awake. But all this hard work was not done alone. There are many people who put a great deal into this book. The most demanding part is the layout people. I would like to thank Jehd Canceran for all of the hard work and dedication. Jason Bellchamber and Chris Baratta who did a lot of the art work. The people in charge of taking pictures are a great asset to a yearbook as well. In that department I would like to say thank you to David Morgan and June Hayter, the photography editors. I also think that without someone to type all the student names, I don't think we would have a yearbook. Thank you Lisa Votta for all the hard work, and for putting up with me.

Next is the person who I think did the greatest job of managing the staff. She was a teacher who taught me all there was to know about yearbooks. She is the only person who is more stubborn than me. Thanks Estrella for being such a good teacher. Speaking of teachers, the staff advisors are the big bosses. Thank you Ms. Rajala and Mrs. Janssen for being there to help out whenever you were needed, which I might add was quite a few times.

CATHOLIC CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL

Administration

Dear Students:

The completion of an academic year has many significant aspects: it marks the completion of high school studies for some of you, for others it is yet another grade completed successfully. This June is significant in another respect however, in that it will mark the completion of a formal and financial relationship between the Diocese of London and Catholic Central High School.

This event should cause all of us to reflect upon the many sacrifices made by so many to fund Catholic secondary education over the past 125 years in London. The sacrifices of parents, students and others in our Community have been equalled by the determination of successive generations of bishops and clergy in the diocese who maintained this school and its predecessors in the face of many formidable challenges. Faith has sustained us all in the past and this same Faith will continue to guide us as we begin a new phase of Catholic secondary education at C.C.H.

You students have been touched by this spirit; my hope is that it will serve to inspire and serve you in the months and years to come.

To the graduates and to the rest of the student body go my very best wishes for much success and fulfillment.

Sincerely,
